II. ACTIVITIES

A. National Steering Committee Meeting (NSCM)

A NSCM, VVAW/WSO, was held at Buffalo, New York, August 8-12, 1974. VVAW/WSO delegates from Northern California, in their report to the NSCM, stated the VVAW/WSO, Santa Cruz Chapter, after six months of effort, was given office space in the Veterans Memorial Building and access to Veterans facilities. Its work also includes the Discharge Upgrading Project (DUP) and an information center setting up a veterans switchboard for job referrals and housing.

b7D

The delegates also reported the FBI has increased their harassment of the VVAW/WSO members throughout the region. It was stated the FBI is trying to find out "our internal problems and where our members are located". Ongoing education on the FBI and their tactics are being stressed and legal aid is readily available. Delegates also reported that the region had raised $350 in cash and goods to send people to the District of Columbia demonstration of the VVAW/WSO. The region had good media coverage on several radio stations around the District of Columbia action. The region was also continuing its efforts in the DUP work and the East Bay Chapter has all administrative responsibility for the San Francisco and San Jose area, as well as its own. The region is working on behalf of [REDACTED] a prison inmate at San Quentin, who is serving several life sentences and recently received another life sentence for involvement in the August, 1970 Marin County Courthouse shootout in which Judge HAROLD HALEY and guards and prisoners, and [REDACTED] who was arrested February 6, 1974, in Oakland, California, for assaulting a police officer with a deadly weapon. His trial in February, 1975, resulted in a hung jury and retrial is set for the end of February, 1975.

B. Regional VVAW/WSO Meeting

b7D

A VVAW/WSO regional meeting of the California - Nevada Region was held at Santa Cruz, California, September 14-15, 1974. There were approximately 45 - 50 persons present, all from the State of California. Six chapters (five members or more) and three organizing committees (less than five members) had representation present at the meeting. It was stated at the meeting to those present that the San Francisco chapter had ceased as a chapter because of a lack of membership and is now operating as an organizing committee. Individuals from chapters and organizing committees made reports on their activities and projects. Workshops were set up on Indochina, amnesty, Vietnam problems, and racism.

[REDACTED], 9/23/74

C. Sub-Regional Meeting

A VVAW/WSO sub-regional meeting was held in San Francisco, California, on September 29, 1974. There were approximately 20 persons present. Discussions were held regarding the demonstration at the Federal Office Building, 450 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco, which would stress universal unconditional amnesty and veterans should have a retroactive single type discharge. It was also stated that the San Francisco chapter had been dissolved and that its members would like to merge with the Oakland chapter, but this was opposed and it was decided that the San Francisco members could attend Oakland chapter meetings. There were also nominations for national, regional and sub-regional offices.

[REDACTED] 10/10/74

It was stated that within the Santa Cruz chapter, the general consensus is that they do not want any RU members or sympathizers involved in the chapter's activities, and, in general, the San Francisco Bay Area chapters do not want RU members or sympathizers within the organization. The VVAW/WSO members in the San Francisco Bay Area also fear a takeover attempt by the RU people in an effort to control the VVAW/WSO, and the San Francisco Bay Area VVAW/WSO membership is aware of RU influence within the National Steering Committee membership of the VVAW/WSO. REVOLUTIONARY UNION

The Revolutionary Union (RU), founded in early 1968 in the San Francisco Bay area, is a militant semi-covert Marxist-Leninist revolutionary organization ideologically oriented towards the People's Republic of China and the teachings of Chairman MAO Tse-tung. Its objectives as set forth in its theoretical publication, "The Red Papers," and in its monthly newspaper, "Revolution," are the development of a united front against imperialism, the fostering of revolutionary working class unity and leadership in struggle, and the formation of a communist party based on Marxism-Leninism-MAO Tse-tung thought, leading to the overthrow of the United States Government by force and violence. Members of the RU have been identified as collecting weapons while engaging in firearms and guerrilla warfare training. As of July, 1974, RU national headquarters was located in Maywood, Illinois.

APPENDIX

VIETNAM VETERANS AGAINST THE WAR/
WINTER SOLDIER ORGANIZATION

A source advised in January, 1974, that the Vietnam Veterans Against the War (VVAW) was organized in New York City in 1967 as an organization of Vietnam Veterans to protest American involvement in the war in Southeast Asia. In 1967-1971, the VVAW engaged in various protest demonstrations of a non-violent nature, but during late 1971 evidenced increasing militancy, culminating in December, 1971, with the takeover of various American landmarks and public buildings. In 1972 certain VVAW leaders were quoted as telling members the VVAW was a revolutionary organization and not "just another group of war veterans."

VVAW leaders have traveled to North Vietnam in 1972-1973 and have reportedly established liaison with revolutionary or terrorist groups internationally. During the January, 1973 National Steering Committee (NSC) meeting, VVAW leaders discussed programs aimed at obtaining support from or influencing active duty military personnel to act contrary to orders. Also discussed was obtaining access to classified Government information to be used against U. S. interests, and one leader subsequently reportedly engaged in such activity.

During 1972, VVAW leaders and activists reportedly made several trips to Europe and Asia during which they participated in conferences with representatives and/or officials of the Soviet Bloc, North Vietnam, and the National Liberation Front of South Vietnam. The membership was also told the VVAW had been asked to cooperate on an international level with many organizations, including communist or Maoist groups, describing them as "our friends". Commitments of support for the VVAW were reportedly received from throughout the world, and it was stated the VVAW had strong ties with nearly all revolutionary organizations. Further, international "anti-imperialist groups" considered the VVAW a potent organization of similar stature in the United States.

At one NSC meeting in 1972, the speakers presented their views in a manner demonstrating the VVAW utilized a Marxist-oriented analysis of world problems.

In April, 1973, an organizational name change to Vietnam Veterans Against the War/Winter Soldier Organization (VVAW/WSO) was made to indicate inclusion as member individuals other than veterans of military service.

During the April, 1973 NSC meeting, the attendees were told the group has communication with over 200 foreign organizations and was considered a credible organization by these groups. In October, 1973, representatives of the VVAW/WSO attended and participated in the World Peace Congress in Moscow, USSR.

In mid-1973 an ideological split within the organizational leadership became evident, with those espousing the Marxist-Leninist doctrine having to contend with the growing influence of the Maoists. Current VVAW/WSO national officers are Marxist-Leninist oriented, and have expressed determination to educate the VVAW/WSO membership in Marxist-Leninist doctrine. The VVAW/WSO publication, "Winter Soldier", is considered a very useful tool in this regard.

The VVAW/WSO is composed of approximately 130 chapters nationwide. Current estimated membership is 2,000. National Headquarters is located at 827 West Newport, Chicago, Illinois.

The VVAW was formed in 1967 as an organization of Vietnam veterans to protest American involvement in the war in Southeast Asia. Since that time VVAW leaders have told members the VVAW is a revolutionary group, not "just another group of war veterans". Also, the membership has been told the VVAW has been asked to cooperate on an international level with many organizations, including communist and Maoist groups. Additionally, it was indicated that "anti-imperialist groups" consider the VVAW a potent organization of similar stature in the U.S. In April, 1973, the group changed their name to VVAW/WSO so that non-veterans could become members. Current VVAW/WSO national officers are Marxist-Leninist oriented and strive to educate their membership in Marxist-Leninist doctrine.

VIETNAM VETERANS AGAINST THE WAR/
WINTER SOLDIER ORGANIZATION

The VVAW was formed in 1967 as an organization of Vietnam veterans to protest American involvement in the war in Southeast Asia. Since that time VVAW leaders have told members the VVAW is a revolutionary group, not "just another group of war veterans". Also, the membership has been told the VVAW has been asked to cooperate on an international level with many organizations, including communist and Maoist groups. Additionally, it was indicated that "anti-imperialist groups" consider the VVAW a potent organization of similar stature in the U.S. In April, 1973, the group changed their name to VVAW/WSO so that non-veterans could become members. Current VVAW/WSO national officers are Marxist-Leninist oriented and strive to educate their membership in Marxist-Leninist doctrine.

VVAW/WSO leaders voted at the 12/74 NSCM to align VVAW/WSO with the RU, which organization follows a strict Maoist line designed to bring about violent revolution in the U.S.

VIETNAM VETERANS AGAINST THE WAR/
WINTER SOLDIER ORGANIZATION

A source advised in January, 1974, that the Vietnam Veterans Against the War (VVAW) was organized in New York City in 1967 as an organization of Vietnam Veterans to protest American involvement in the war in Southeast Asia. In 1967-1971, the VVAW engaged in various protest demonstrations of a non-violent nature, but during late 1971 evidenced increasing militancy, culminating in December, 1971, with the takeover of various American landmarks and public buildings. In 1972 certain VVAW leaders were quoted as telling members the VVAW was a revolutionary organization and not "just another group of war veterans."

VVAW leaders have traveled to North Vietnam in 1972-1973 and have reportedly established liaison with revolutionary or terrorist groups internationally. During the January, 1973 National Steering Committee (NSC) meeting, VVAW leaders discussed programs aimed at obtaining support from or influencing active duty military personnel to act contrary to orders. Also discussed was obtaining access to classified Government information to be used against U. S. interests, and one leader subsequently reportedly engaged in such activity.

During 1972, VVAW leaders and activists reportedly made several trips to Europe and Asia during which they participated in conferences with representatives and/or officials of the Soviet Bloc, North Vietnam, and the National Liberation Front of South Vietnam. The membership was also told the VVAW had been asked to cooperate on an international level with many organizations, including communist or Maoist groups, describing them as "our friends". Commitments of support for the VVAW were reportedly received from throughout the world, and it was stated the VVAW had strong ties with nearly all revolutionary organizations. Further, international "anti-imperialist groups" considered the VVAW a potent organization of similar stature in the United States.

At one NSC meeting in 1972, the speakers presented their views in a manner demonstrating the VVAW utilized a Marxist-oriented analysis of world problems.

APPENDIX

In April, 1973, an organizational name change to Vietnam Veterans Against the War/Winter Soldier Organization (VVAW/WSO) was made to indicate inclusion as member individuals other than veterans of military service.

During the April, 1973 NSC meeting, the attendees were told the group has communication with over 200 foreign organizations and was considered a credible organization by these groups. In October, 1973, representatives of the VVAW/WSO attended and participated in the World Peace Congress in Moscow, USSR.

In mid-1973 an ideological split within the organizational leadership became evident, with those espousing the Marxist-Leninist doctrine having to contend with the growing influence of the Maoists. Current VVAW/WSO national officers are Marxist-Leninist oriented, and have expressed determination to educate the VVAW/WSO membership in Marxist-Leninist doctrine. The VVAW/WSO publication, "Winter Soldier", is considered a very useful tool in this regard.

The VVAW/WSO is composed of approximately 130 chapters nationwide. Current estimated membership is 2,000. National Headquarters is located at 827 West Newport, Chicago, Illinois.

On 3/12/75, [REDACTED] advised that the trials for the seven individuals arrested in connection with a demonstration on 9/17/74, have been the subject of numerous continuances and he advised that it appears very unlikely that the cases will be heard in 4/75, as previously believed.

Inasmuch as there is no definite date of court trials set for the seven individuals in this matter and further because of numerous continuances, it is believed the matter can be best followed under the individual cases and reported to the Bureau. Therefore, Cincinnati is closing this case UACB.

RAOE OF SERVICES OFFERED TO VETERANS AT THE VA HOSPITAL. THIS SOURCE ADVISED THAT THE VVAW/WSO PLANS TO ATTEMPT TO SET UP A TABLE FOR THE OISTRIBUTION OF VVAW/WSO LITERATURE IN THE LOBBY OF THE VA HOSPITAL, CINCINNATI, AT THE TIME OF THE DEMONSTRATION. WHILE NO PLAN WAS MADE FOR ANY VIOLENT ACTION, IT WAS CONCLUDED BY THE VVAW/WSO THAT THEIR ATTEMPT TO SET UP A TABLE WITHIN THE VA HOSPITAL LOBBY COULD WELL RESULT IN A CONFRONTATION AND SUBSEQUENT ARREST.

SOURCE SUBSEQUENTLY ADVISED ON APRIL 1, 1975, THAT LEAFLETS WERE BEING PRINTED BY VVAW/WSO DEMANDING MORE BENEFITS FROM VA, AND THESE LEAFLETS MAY BE OISTRIBUTED IN AREA OF VA HOSPITAL ON APRIL 1 AND 2, 1975. THESE LEAFLETS MAKE NO REFERENCE TO PROPOSED DEMONSTRATION APRIL 3, 1975, AND SOURCE IS OF OPINION THAT THE APRIL 3 ACTIVITY WILL BE CONFINED TO THE ATTEMPT TO OISTRIBUTE LITERATURE IN HOSPITAL. SOURCE IS OF FURTHER OPINION THAT VVAW/WSO IS HAVING DIFFICULTY GETTING PERSONS TO VOLUNTEER TO PERFORM THE OISTRIBUTION OF LITERATURE IN THE HOSPITAL BECAUSE OF THE LIKELIHOOD OF ARREST.
